"HOT CARGO" LABOR RACKET

Building Contractors High-Pressured

Refuse to Accept Closed Shop

James McKnight, agent for the AFL carpenters union of San Diego, has a hard time breaking down the decision of the building contractors of San Diego not to submit to his dictation and accept the Closed Shop for San Diego. After having harassed the contractors, their hired help and the lumber yards for over two months with pickets, personal calls, threats and promises of worse to come, the contractors are just as firm today not to yield as they were the first day.

Last week Phil Doughty, Builder, with offices at 3823 El Cajon Blvd., was honored with a picket at each of his eight jobs now under construction and two pickets in front of his office. The result was that the pickets attracted attention and people who would not have chosen Doughty to build their house, stopped at his office and started proceedings to give him the job. The public is getting awakened to the menace of organized hoodlums. Especially now, when the world remembers what happened to France after Leon Blum encouraged sabotage by organized racketeers in France's industries. We cannot have two governments in America, one by the American selective process and the other by organized racketeers and rabble rousers.

Doughty had to buy his own truck to haul materials from the AFL organized lumber yards to his eight jobs. Then he was confronted with the refusal of AFL labor in the lumber yards to load his truck, but this was broken down when one of the men quit the union and loaded the truck. So far Doughty has had no financial loss because of his refusal to truckle to the labor racketeers.

Of course, McKnight cannot permit Doughty to haul his own lumber and thumb his nose at the labor racket without disorganizing the whole setup of the racketeers. They are not interested in the fact tha tthe buildnig industry is on the upgrade in San Diego when unemployment is such a drain upon the taxpayers who must support the Welfare Doles. McKnight will sabotage San Diego's industries anytime there is a profit in sight for his racket. Fellows like him thrive on the carcass of industry, on the living carcass, and that only as long as they can hogtie industry and control it, not for the interest of those engaged in the work and the production of goodsand values, but for the pockets of the leadership of the labor racket.

Therefore, when it became evident that Doughty made himself independent of AFL teamsters, hauling his own supplies, McKnight threw a picket line around the Peterson lumberyard, 4105 Pacific highway, and forced the millworkers and teamsters of the Peterson Lumber Co. to quit work. Of course, this does not help those who quit work. They lose wages which they need. They have no quarrel with Doughty, but their racket boss commands and so San Diego's building industry is to be sabotaged

"MANKIND UNITED"

Secret Society Mulcts Suckers of $20 each, Plus

ESCONDIDO, Calif.,—Mankind United, one of those wrinkles designed to extract good money from the unwary, had its night in the open last Friday night at Eagle Hall in Escondido.

Following a letter printed in the Escondido Times-Advocate recently in which MU was viewed under suspicion as possibly subversive, Homer Glen Wilcox, head of the outfit in San Diego, was offered a chance to explain his organization under auspices of the J. B. Clark post of the American Legion, with Dale Hurst, Legion leader, as sponsor.

The hall was packed since Escondido has been a rich harvest field for the order which charges $20.00 for full membership.

Hurst had fortified himself with a couple of shrewd inquisitors including Col. Geo. Fisher, San Diego veteran and attorney, and Joe Matherly, Escondido Legionnaire.

Mr. Wilcox was permitted first to tell the story of Mankind United and he painted a rosy picture of its altruistic and humanitarian purposes by which in some mysterious way a plan is soon to be revealed from some mysterious source in which war will be forever stopped, hate will be displaced by love, and nobody will have anything to do but sit in the shade and enjoy the Abundant Life. Although such a beauteous scheme involves a considerable change in things Mr. Wilcox said his Mankind United was not out to overthrow anything, but to install peace and happiness.

His organization had been investigated lots of times, said Mr. Wilcox, even by the G-men and always came out on top. They were not secret, he said, and anybody could attend their meetings, although it was necessary to keep some of the things secret. They were opposed to exalting personalities. They were self-effacing. Everything was all for one and one for all.

This callenged the curiosity of Atty. Fisher, when he began asking questions of Mr. Wilcox. After getting Mr. Wilcox to tell his full name, address and previous degree of servitude, after the manner of inquisitive attorneys, Mr. Fisher asked Mr. Wilcox who was the head man of his outfit around here.

"I suppose I am," said Mr. Wilcox.

"Do you keep records?" continued Mr. Fisher.

"We do."

"Do you have a bookkeeper or secretary?" urged Mr. Fisher.

"No. I do it myself," replied Wilcox.

"How many members have you in San Diego county?"

"I don't know," answered Wilcox.

"Have you 1,000?"

"I wish we did."

"Have you 500?'

"I couldn't tell you."

"Have you 100?"

"Oh, yes."

"Have you 200?"

"I think so."

"Have you 300?"

"I don't think that is fair questioning," replied Mr. Wilcox, juggling around nervously on his feet. "You are supposed to ask me if we are subversive."

"But the government is interested in these secret societies that are planning to change everything," mildly suggested Mr. Fisher.

"All right," continued Mr. Fisher, "I won't ask you about your members. Are you by any chance the head man of Mankind United?"

"Oh, no," smiled Wilcox, getting happier again. "Mankind United has been going in since 1875."

"Are you the head man in California?"

"No. I have a superior."

"Who is he?" asked Fisher.

"I don't know," answered Wilcox.

"Where does he live?"

"I don't know."

"That's funny," observed Fisher. "Did you ever see him?"

"Yes, I've seen him and heard him," offered Wilcox. "but I don't know his name or where he lives. Besides I don't think that is pertinent to this inquiry.

"How are you going to set this scheme in motion?" asked Fisher, taking up a new line of inquiry.

"We are going to get a 30-day revelation over the radio when everything is ready," answered Wilcox.

"What radio?" was Fisher's next impudent question.

"I don't know," snapped Wilcox.

"Who is going to broadcast it?"

"I don't know."

"But you will do what it says even though you don't know where it comes from or who is broadcasting?"

"I suppose we will."

"Would you do it if you knew it was coming from Moscow?"

"I suppose so," weakly answered Wilcox.

By this time the audience was convulsed with laughter. —Carlsbad Journal.

Judge Mundo Tries Sales Tax Suit

The case of C. Leon de Aryan vs. Roy O. Akers for the refund of $2.10 salestax paid under protest for the printing of THE BROOM, was called up in superior court last Wednesday by Judge Arthur L. Mundo. Both litigants acted as their own attorneys but had to hire a court reporter. Since this case will go to higher courts and if needs be to U. S. Supreme Court, the expense, naturally, will be out of proportion to the financial benefits procurred by de Aryan, should he win his case which involves discrimination against small newspapers to the advantage of publishers who own their own printing equipment.

The suit is a test case to establish the authority, or lack, of the California State Board of Equalization to charge the printer of a legally established newspaper of general circulation a three percent salestax for the printing of the paper. This tax is not collected from printers who print their own papers, as for example the UNION-TRIBUNE-SUN, thus it discriminates against the man of small means who does not have his own printing plant by arbitrarily adding to his expense. Editor de Aryan contends that it violates the Federal Constitution's provision of free press and proposes to take it on these grounds into Federal Court for ultimate appeal should the ruling go against him in the lower courts.

The California Salestax act provides that tax should be collected from the retailer, de Aryan, and not from the producer, Akers. On this basis de Aryan applied for a retail permit to the Board which was refused him with the information that he need pay no tax for SELLING the BROOM. The tax is not a manufacturer's tax, but a salestax, so de Aryan argues that if the seller does not have to pay tax, the manufacturer certainly needs not pay it under the statute.

Evidence was presented last Wednesday and the litigants have one month to file briefs for arguments.

CHARITY AT HOME ?

And why is it that English refugee children are being accepted as wards by many of our well-to-do folks in America—and these same well-to-do snobs wouldn't go out of their way to look after the millions of underprivileged American kids.—The Belfry.

George Washington's Visions

Who Is Boring From Within?

By C. Leon de Aryan

Please don't fool yourself imagining that the people of the U. S. A. are the rulers of this country. You know quite well why everybody says: "We do not want war, but we know we will be dragged into it". You know damned well that you do not run this country. It is run for you and the real revolutionary war of INDEPENDENCE has just started now.

George Washington had a vision of three wars. The first one fighting the British-Jewish union of Maier Amshel and the King. The second fighting the same union when they induced the southern States to secede. The third started in 1917 and its final phase is being entered upon at this writing.

Spain has broken diplomatic relations with Chile. This is the first actual involvement of Europe in this last phase of the THIRD vision.

The heritage of Maier Amshel (Rothschild, Kuhn, Loeb & Co.) still rules the world. America is entering upon the last phase of its war of INDEPENDENCE from this Jewish government of the world.

Communism in Mexico

Don't be a fool. Roosevelt wants Communism in Mexico just as he encouraged it in the U. S. A., Harry Bridges, Wagner act, Mudom Perkins, etc. He could have stopped the confiscation of the oil fields by simply stopping purchase of silver from Cardenas. But he continued to purchase silver and encouraged the South Americas to form Communist dominated, property confiscating governments. He wants it, because that starts the civil war going and gives those Jew financiers a chance to make war profits. That is why Spanish war refugees were encouraged to settle in Mexico. When the trouble starts we are to invade Mexico, but first they must be strong enough to start serious trouble.

Why Willkie Licked Taft

The sucker public imagines that the Willkie boom was "spontaneous" and that he was drafted by the "delegates". Nothing is farther from the facts.

It was well known in Republican circles that Roosevelt was to be "drafted" and to offest the popular "enthusiasm" that would be generated by a "draft" Roosevelt maneuver, the Jewish-British high command which rules the U. S. with $165-million appropriated by the British government for propaganda in the U. S. and over a billion dollars used by the All-Jewish front towards the same end the world over;—this invisible government decided to "draft Willkie" instead of presenting him as their candidate through regular channels of primaries, etc.

They did not want Taft because he was too moderate in his attitude towards Germany. Taft was willing to uphold a moderate peace treaty while Willkie is for out and out war of long duration until Germany is "licked".

No U. S. Soldiers to Europe

You will notice that the two party platforms promise not to send American men to fight in Europe because the Jewish-British high command has decided to bring the war over here. The English government is to be transferred to Ottawa and the war is to go on. Then an excuse will be found to start a war in South America and our boys will be sent there.

The fact is that South America is having the same convulsions which tore Europe apart. Jewish Communism vs. Fascist Nationalism. Changes are coming there as fast as they happened in Europe. The Jewish Communists who are the International CAPITALISTS of the Bank of England stripe, financed by London and New York, are pressing hard for a showdown. The result will be as in Chile when Spain broke diplomatic relations. Counter strokes will establish Fascist dominated administrations and then the U. S. will send an expeditionary force to "suppress" the revolution and put the London-New York faction back into power.

Naturally, this will involve support from both camps as in Spain and the result will be a war going on full blast on this hemisphere. It will wind up as George Washington foresaw it in his vision, with the invasion of the U. S. proper by the armies of Germany, Russia, Japan.

All this is as unnecessary as was the first revolutionary war. The Jew Mayer Amshel wanted to make money and became the financial overlord of Europe by financing wars. He collected 2-million in gold to supply the King of England with Hessian mercenaries against George Washington. Today the House of Rothschild, his successors and the house of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., are the world financiers who are deliberately creating the situations which will bring the war to our shores and devastate the two American continents unnecessarily.

The result will be final American victory and elimination of the Jews from the financial and political picture, through the formation of an American government not dominated by Jews.

"Sir William returned to the United States several months ago.

"Henry L. Stimson is counsel to Kuhn, Loeb Company. Stimson's law firm also is known to have extensive British-French business attachments.

"Henry Stimson is now Secretary of War in the Cabinet of President Roosevelt, who heads the war party of the Nation.

"Recently a considerable block of stock was opened to public sale by the Chicago Daily News. Among the largest buyers was Kuhn, Loeb Co.

"Colonel Frank Knox, News publisher, is now Secretary of the Navy in the same Cabinet."

President Wendell Willkie

No 'Heil Roosevelt!' in America

Roosevelt Can't Dictate Election

Many of our readers have asked us whether THE BROOM will support Wendell Willkie for president in view of the fact that he is the selection of the British-Jewish leadership in this country.

The situation is not so simple, while the issues are very plain.

Both the incumbent and Willkie are tools of the International Bankers. It makes no difference for which one you vote from that standpoint.

But if you vote for Roosevelt you vote for 'Heil Roosevelt!' and good night America, the blackout is here.

Roosevelt dictated his third term nomination as well as the nomination of Wallace as his running mate. He has no use for the Democratic platform since it does not reflect his administration but is a compromise to fool the suckers and get them to elect him BOSS. Once elected to the third term he will consider it a mandate to one-man rule and well he should, for everybody knows that it means just that. He has no use for the system of checks and balances and with the "emergency" powers already established for the executive he will make the "emergency" total and permanent just as he made the depression, unemployment and the destruction of the American merchant marine permanent under Harry Bridges. He has no use for anyone who does not truckle down to him. In fact, he hates Hitler out of jealousy since both came to power at the same time, Hitler is undisputed ruler while Franklin is yet disputed by the Republicans.

We shall support Willkie, because we cannot do otherwise, unless we want to give Roosevelt the "mandate" to dictatorship. And this is the issue before the voters in November.

With Willkie, of course, we will have to watch him every inch of the way to make sure he does not subordinate American interests to Anglo-Judah, but at least we shall have a fighting chance. With Roosevelt in the third term, the dictatorship will be legally established, for every thinking person knows that Roosevelt will so interpret his re-election and he has the powers to assume one-man rule after the voters endorsed him a third time. But he is out.

A NATIONALIST AMERICA

The most ridiculous procedure of the New Deal Draft Roosevelt party convention under the cloak of Democracy, was the drafting of the no foreign war plank in the platform. Since Roosevelt never keeps a party pledge, naturally he is quite willing to let the party promise the suckers anything, just so they'll vote for him and then the Boss will do as he damn pleases.

This "no foreign war" plank goes counter to everything Roosevelt has done during the last three years. If he is to run on his record, why did they not draft the plank according to his record and to reflect the correct position in which he placed the U. S. A. in the foreign policy? He has used the gold and silver buying policy to finance foreign wars and he has used subterfuge to hold the S. S. Bremen in port long enough in New York to give the British a chance to capture it. He has used subterfuge to deliver U. S. Army supplies to the Allies and that is why Woodring quit as secretary of war. Now why did they not dare write this policy into the Democratic platform? Why did they not come out openly?

Because the people of the these U. S. are opposed to Roosevelt's foreign policy inspite of the sentiment they have for the Allies. They want to safeguard America first and do not want to fight for the Allies. It is quite apparent that Americans are good fans at the circus and the war games, but are mere bystanders, just the same. Slowly, but surely they are awakening from the hypnotic dose of Jewish-British propaganda and are deciding to be NATIONALIST, for America first, not pawns for the Internationalists. Just as Japan is creating a Chinese National consciousness, the New Deal has forced the American nation to decide whether it wants to be absorbed by the Jewish-British empire and meekly do their bidding, or declare itself an independent nation that does its own thinking.

No Cartel for South American Trade

Why did the Democratic Platform not contain a plank about buying up surplus agricultural and mineral products of South America to prevent its barter to Germany? Because the American farmers and miners would not stand for it when their own products go begging for want of a market.

England's "Damnocracy"

By Geo. Cartwright

MODESTO, Calif.,—Following the World War when the baby in the sweltering heat of city slums was taxed a penny war-tax on an ice-cream cone and Land worth millions of dollars an acre was war-tax free, a Pittsburg, Pa., department store owner said "that's making America safe for Damnocracy". Today England's income tax is collected from the newsboy earning $5.00 a week while 3,000,000 acres of aristocrats sacred grass land is free of war tax. It has, however, been forced into use for food production. "In the borough of Ipswich an area of 8,692 acres there is only one cow, of this 3,500 acres are absolutely unused, and, being derated (i. e. tax free) make no contribution to local rates," states The Freeman, N. Y. Neither England or Germany is short of Land for use of the people if it were not monopolized by the "economic Royalists."

"LABOR" ON WILLKIE

RR Brotherhoods' weekly "Labor's" report on the Republican convention includes the sinister items:

"Unprecedented in political annals was the arrival Monday of 'Tom' Lamont, senior Morgan partner, who threw discretion to the wind to take charge of the Wilkie forces."

"The House of Morgan and other Wall Street interests want this country to go to the aid of the Allies, with men, money and materials. Morgan has vast intersts in France and England which would be imperilled if not wiped out by an ultimate Hitler victory." . . .

WHY WOODRING RESIGNED

The day Secretary of War Harry H. Woodring was forced out of the President's Cabinet to be replaced by Henry L. Simson, the following significant press dispatch was released from Topeka, Kansas:

"The Capital said tonight that Secretary of War Harry H. Woodring told friends in Topeka three weeks ago a 'small clique of international financiers' was seeking to force him out because he opposed 'stripping our defenses' to aid the Allies.

"The Cabinet Officer, who resigned suddenly to make way for President Roosevelt's appointment of Henry L. Stimson as war secretary, made his assertion June 1 when he came here to receive an honorary degree from Washburn College, the paper said.

"Woodring asked that the statement not be published until after his resignation.

"I'm an advocate of adequate defense but I will never stand for sending American boys into Europe's shambles" the Kansasan was quoted. "There is a comparatively small clique of international financiers who want the United States to declare war and get into the European mess with everything we have including our manpower.

"I'm not going to stand for it and I'm not going to resign until forced to do so.

"They don't like me because I'm against stripping our own defenses for the sake of trying to stop Hitler 3,000 miles away. Eventually they will force me to resign, and I'll be darned glad to come back to Kansas where the people have their feet on the ground and are not easily swayed by demagogs and subtle propaganda."

Old Folks Sent To Psychopatic

Unemployment Insurance Racket Expensive

Why does the Welfare Department send up old folks to be interned in Patton at State expense, when these people are not insane? It has been going on steadily and our superior court judges are releasing these old folks right along while the Welfare Department continues to push them up for insanity trials, a regular parade. The District Attorney should cease making his office the goat that swears out false insanity affidavits upon advice of "Dr." Palmer.

We shall bring more details soon.

FORCED LABOR COMPETITION

Our government's present concern over competition for South America's industrial market and its plans to secure to American industry an edge over Germany, our principal present, or prospective competitor, are deserving of the most careful investigation by American industry and by every other tax payer in this country.

The need for concern is stated to be the forced labor advantage Germany industry enjoys as against the free (?) labor standards in American industry, this in spite of the fact that the nations most successful in industrial advancement are those where labor has had the most freedom.

May not this conclusion that free labor requires a subsidy be due to a misconceived conclusion that industry and labor in America are free? Can industry be said to be free when it is required to pay for land on which to locate and from which to secure the raw materials necessary to its operation and then deliver a large part of its product to the government in the form of taxes, licenses and fees? Can the American laborer be said to be free when he must satisfy some owner of land if he would employ himself, or accept in wages such portion of his product as the industrial employer is willing or can be compelled to give him of what is left after paying for land and for government?

Is it not our government's first obligation to free both industry and labor in America? This can be done, and with far less expense than the foredoomed effort to compel South America to purchase in America when it can purchase more cheaply in Europe, and if it is done, the free labor and industry of America need fear no competitors. American industry can readily support every necessary governmental agency if the charge is distributed in proportion to benefits received, and if the unjust charge of land monopolists and speculators is entirely eliminated, and can undersell all forced labor competitors.—Fairhope (Ala.) Courier.

HENRY FORD THE AMERICAN

"MILLIONS for defense, but not one cent for tribute," was our notice to the British when oppression forced an American Declaration of Independence 164 years ago.

"One thousand airplanes a day for the defense of America, but not one plane for the British Empire" was Mr. Henry Ford's paraphrased declaration of independence from war-mongering internationalists.

The Government had asked the Ford Company to make 3,000 Rolls-Royce airplane motors for America to 6,000 for Great Britain. Mr. Ford said "No".

By an ironic coincidence Mr. Ford last week was presented with the James Watt International Medal by the Institution of Mechanical Engineers, a British society. Propagandists made much of a German medal presented to Mr. Ford some months ago. Both medals probably will be added to the other relics at his famous museum in Dearborn, Michigan.

How the Rothschilds Rose to Power

The "Hof-Jude"

The present unfortunate position of the Jewish people in both the German and Austrian states makes an investigation of the former role of the Jews in those nations particularly timely.

In the courts of the Germans and Austrian princes during the 17th and 18th centuries the Hof-Jude, or Court Jew, played a significant political and financial role. Ususally he was a wealthy business man who was the favorite of a king, Prince or other ruling nobleman. The Hof-Jude acted as the agent of his ruler and patron in all business matters. He often also served as the official secretary of the treasury of the state.

The Hof-Jude enjoyed certain privileges as a reward for the services which he rendered. He was exempt from the special taxes which were levied on the Jews. He was not restricted in his residence to the usual ghetto of that period, but was allowed to live wherever he wished. He was also allowed to buy and sell freely.

Many Hof-Juden gained a great deal of power and were consequently instrumental in helping their fellow Jews by pleading for them in times of persecution and trouble, and by working to gain extensions of civil rights in times of tranquility.

THEOCRATIC CONVENTION OF JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES

Ever since the published announcement the latter part of March, nation-wide interest, including Canadian and Mexican, has rapidly developed in the Theocratic Convention of Jehovah's witnesses, scheduled for July 24 to 28. Arrangements thus far advanced show that this 1940 convention will be the most prodigious ever attempted by any organized group on the North American continent. In effect it is a chain of conventions, all simultaneous and sharing together the same principal convention features and located in cities east, west, north and south, thus affording a coverage of the entire country with easy access to all convention comers.

Based on general interest manifested it is confidently expected that multitudes of people of good will, regardless of different religious affiliations, will assemble together. Johovah's witnesses cannot be classed as a cult or sect, following a human leader and adhearing to some formal, man-made creed and ritual. Their purpose in assembling is to give a united witness to Jehovah's Theocratic Government by Christ the King, and to study the latest revelations of Bible prophecy concerning the establishment thereof for man's benefit, and to discuss the most effective and up-to-date means and methods for increasing the general popular knowledge thereof.

The principal event of the convention is the big, public meeting at 4 o'clock (E.S.T.) Sunday afternoon, July 28, at which time Judge Rutherford will speak on the subject, "Religion as a World Remedy—The Evidence in Support Thereof". All people that seek righteousness and that want to hear this address are cordially invited to attend the assembly at the Plata Real, U. S. Grant Hotel, Third and Broadway, San Diego, California, at 1 p. m. on July 28. Admission is free.

The key city of the convention is Columbus, Ohio, where the State Fair Grounds have been arranged for by civic authorities. From there the convention program will be carried by connecting telephone lines direct to 32 cities throughout the United States. Well-founded estimates are that Sunday, the final day, upward of 100,000 people will be attending the convention sessions. It is recalled that 30,000 publicly turned out in Columbus alone to hear Judge Rutherford at the last convention there.

Keeping The Record Straight

By E. N. Martin

LOS ANGELES,—In order that a true perspective of the President, and "the state of the nation" may be had, attention is invited to the following authentic and verifiable facts:

"Nicolas Rosenfelt—son of Claes Rosenfelt, a Jew, who came from Holland to this country in 1649—was the lineal ancestor of both Franklin D. Roosevelt, and his fifth cousin, the late President Theodore Roosevelt.

Nicolas Rosenfelt married a Jewish girl named Kunst in 1682. The Rosenfelt ancestors of Franklin Delano Roosevelt, who were butchers and dealers in hides, bought large tracts of land in New York, and its fabulous increase in value enriched the entire Roosevelt clan.

Jacob Rosenfelt, son of Nicolas, married a Hardenbroak, and one of their sons married Johannes Roos. It was after this marriage that the name was changed from Rosenfelt to Roosevelt.

Theodore Roosevelt never denied his Jewish origin, but Franklin D. Roosevelt evaded the question when a Jewish Rabbi in Chicago asked him if his lineal ancestors were Jews.

The wealthy Rosenfelts were Tories, and no Rosenfelt fought in the Revolution."

The President of the United States is entitled to respect only so long as he observes his oath of office and is true to the trust reposed in him. Any weakkneed theory to the contrary is arrant nonsense.

Two of the President's sons—James and John—are employed by Jewish firms, and, as the President has long been the beneficiary of moral, financial and political support from Jewish people, his determined efforts to conceal his Jewish origin is incomprehensible.

Discerning Jewish leaders, however, finally have seen through the President's incapacity and insincerity, and have withdrawn their support from him—not for any sentimental reason but because they are keenly aware that their economic security and highly prized liberties are endangered by the Administration's fantastic money schemes, ruinous economy of scarcity, the destruction of foreign markets for our agricultural and manufactured products, the unparalled waste of public funds, constantly increasing public debt, mounting taxation, and the President's seemingly uncontrollable desire to meddle in European power politics.

President Roosevelt always has been a member of the "over-privileged" class, he has never managed or financed a business, never had to earn his own living, has been a chronic office-holder and always has had a whimsical sense of the value and function of money.

He never practiced law successfully, and after the World War he was not successful in the business of selling German marks in America and in the promotion and sale of automatic vending machines.

In everything except politics, which requires only the ability to juggle words and deceive voters, the President has been a mis-fit.

The Labor Racket

just now when even the Federal Government is taking steps to speed up more building in San Diego.

This condition where the labor racketeers set themselves up as our super-government against lawful conduct of business and profitable relationship between employes and their employers, in order to exact a tribute and bore from within, this condition leads to more unemployment, anarchy, demoralization and the racketeers need not be surprised that more insistent demands are made to have them outlawed and eliminated.

HOT CARGO RACKET

The AFL claims that a load of lumber not handled by AFL members constitutes "hot cargo", therefore the yard and millworkers of the Peterson yard were ordered to strike.

Another contractor was approached and threatened by McKnight. He called his men together and told McKnight to solicit them to join the union. The AFL agent talked to them, they took a vote and solidly refused to join. McKnight was told to abide by the decision of the men themselves, for this is still America and not France under Leon Blum or Russia under the dictatorship over the proletariat.

Jewish Partnership of Wiseman-Kuhn, Loeb and Company

In a syndicated article Boake Carter gave us some interesting information.

It is information related to the two hybrid Republicans, Colonels Stimson and Knox, whom Mr. Roosevelt induced into his cabinet.

Here is the news:

"Sir William Wiseman, chief of British intelligence and 'under-cover' man during the first World War, is a partner of Kuhn, Loeb Company, New York banking house with labyrinthian connections in London, France and other international finance quarters."

THE OLD NEW DEAL GOAT

A young census taker had managed to get an inventory of most of the chattels and stock though he had never been upon a farm before in his life. One animal he failed to identify—a goat. He phoned to city headquarters: "What do you call that thing that's on this farm with a rough coat that's worn out in spots, walks around stiff legged, has a white beard and a long sad-looking face?" "That you darn fool, is the farmer!"—Groundhog, Topeka, Kansas.

SUPREME COURT DENIES FREEDOM TO NORMAN BAKER

Recently the Supreme Court denied a petition by Norman Baker seeking to obtain his release under bail from the Little Rock, Ark., county jail, where he is being held upon his conviction of mail fraud in connection with the promotion of what was described as a treatment for cancer.

Baker, who operated a hospital at Eureka Springs, Ark., and formerly lived at Muscatine, Ia., was sentenced to four years' imprisonment by the federal District court at Little Rock. He appealed the judgment of conviction to the eighth federal Circuit court and in the meantime unsuccessfully sought release on bail.

In his Supreme court petition Baker said the federal District judge denied bail on the ground that the defendant had "most of his investments" in Mexico and had previously been critical of another federal judge. The Arkansas judge was quoted as saying it would be the natural thing for one with investments in another country and at freedom under bail to "step over the line".

TWEEDLEDEE — TWEEDLEDUM

"ALL of which is equally disconcerting to the Republican party," says Mrs. W. R. Brutters of Lawrence, Massachusetts. Mrs. Brutters admits that she has never "yearned over editors", believing them to be "mossy thinkers in ivy-clad citadels", a description that leaves us hanging by our suspenders somewhere between indignation and applause. "I'm thinking of the editors of Republican publications who are compelled to go along with Mr. Roosevelt's pro-Ally policy and approve of his armament program but at the same time convince us that, after all, he's only playing politics and that the Republican party could be far more pro-Ally and build larger armaments and at the same time keep us out of war. After all, editors are only trying to be human, which, considering their limitations, is a laudable endeavor."—Collier's.

BEING GENEROUS

If I were President Roosevelt
I'd never run for a third term.
Holding the finest office in the land
Which is full of glamour and honor,
I'd let some other man have it.

The president's family and friends
Have enjoyed the white House for eight years.
Surely it would be a fine gesture
On Roosevelt's part,
To let some other folks enjoy it all.

There are plenty of men in this country
Who could fill the post just as well.
If it is a question of how to spend
The tax-payers money,
Why, plenty of others could manage that !

Nearly all of the Roosevelt children
Have been married and divorced
Since the father has been in the White House.
Why not let some other youngsters have a chance
To grow dizzy with the glamour of it all ?

JEWISH GROUP OUSTS UNIT FOR REFUSAL TO QUIT YOUTH CONGRESS

NEW YORK,—Because of its refusal to withdraw from the American Youth Congress, which is alleged to be Communist controlled, the Youth Division of the American Jewish Congress has been dissolved by the parent body, it was announced here by Carl Herman, chairman of the administrative committee of the American Jewish Congress.

Uncle Ezry had been very much occupied all by himself over in a corner near the fireplace. He was working industriously with a stub of a pencil and a piece of paper. Suddenly he looked up happily.

"Dogone!" he exclaimed, "if I ain't learned to write."

Maw got up and looked over the scrawled lines across the paper.

"What do it say?" she asked.

"I don't know," replied Uncle Ezry, puzzled. "I ain't learned to read yit."—Linotype's Shining Lines.

THREE JEWS RUN U. S.

Roosevelt, Rosenman & Cohen

Raymond Moley was a member of the 1936 committee, and had his final quarrel with the President during one of its sessions. He and several others have passed out of the picture. But Judge Samuel Rosenman, oldest of the President's amanuenses, is at the President's side today, and although friction with Harry Hopkins lately has tended to separate Thomas G. Corcoran of Corcoran & Cohen, from the President, it is reported that he is another member of the group now at the White House.

CLOUDS MUST HIDE THE SUN

Let the rain fall;
The clouds rule for a time;
For the sun shall yield
Away these vapors on the hill.
Then leaves shall gleam,
And dazle happy light.
The grass shall sparkle diamonds rare.

A bird shall call,
Another answer with joyous tones.
A lake shall refresh the scene
With clear blue light;
Sparkling with loving gladness
This same lake that fed the sky with vapors
That once masked the sun.

England's Designs on France

Thoughtful Americans are beginning to wonder whether the seizure of the French navy and merchant marine is an accident of the fortunes of war or whether France was deliberately pushed into war while it was yet unprepared, that England may, after its defeat by Germany, absorb the French colonies. This is demonstrated by the fact that immediately after defeat in the field of war, England offered British citizenship to every Frenchman and to the colonies. History will yet reveal the greatest double cross of an Ally in England's greed for more territory.

England figures that with America's help it will continue to maintain its Imperial position. Germany has no colonies to give to England, but France had them. If Germany could absorb France, naturally England could take the French colonies and give them British citizenship. To make sure, England has seized the French navy and merchant vessels.

Early Seizures Told

GRENOBLE, France,—The British navy began seizing French merchant ships on the high seas even before the breaking off of Anglo-French diplomatic relations, the newspaper Petit Dauphinois said in a dispatch from Clermont-Farrand.

Immediately after the French-German armistice, it was alleged, British warships seized food-laden ships en route to French ports.

Sixty years later, the suitor died.

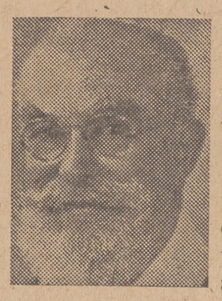
HEALTH-GERMS

By George Starr White, M. D.

DANGEROUS "HEALTH" PROPAGANDA

LOS ANGELES,—The June 24, 1940 "Health News", published by the New York State Department of Health, Albany, N. Y., lets the cat out of the bag regarding publicity scares concerning tuberculosis. For the readers of THE BROOM I take a few highlights from this official publication.



Dr. Geo. Starr White

"The recent meeting of the Committees on Tuberculosis and Public Health of the State Charities Aid Association in New York City opened a new epoch in the campaign against tuberculosis. Plans are being made for an intensified program including case-finding, hospitalization and domiciliary control."

The report mentions as a fact that the indifference on the part of the Public Health authorities is discouraging. The general superintendent of the tuberculosis hospitals in New York State, wants intensive propaganda; taking, as I understand it, the cancer propaganda now flooding the country, as a guide. The measures they want carried out, and for which they are trying to raise money, are to my mind more pernicious and horrible than anything I have read in the papers regarding the European War.

They want to form a "triple alliance of tuberculosis hospitals, health departments and practicing physicians to intensify the frontal attack against tuberculosis as a communicable disease". In other words, they want everyone examined, in order to make an "early diagnosis" to be immediately reported. They want every case so "found" to be followed up.

The State of New York is also sending out word that every person in a family where there is a reported case of tuberculosis, should be examined and segregated. When that cannot be done, the "suspects" are to be put into a hospital. They also advise more prolonged hospital treatment, with "rehabilitation" of the patient starting immediately upon their entrance into the hospital. They advise the employment of more public-health nurses, especially nurses under the superintendent of tuberculosis hospitals. They claim the first step in "tuberculosis control" is finding the cases. This, they claim, can be better accomplished with X-ray than by any other means except the "tuberculin test".

The fact is, that when lung tissue is broken down sufficiently to be observable by X-ray, any ordinary layman would be able to make a guess just as well as the tuberculosis "expert".

They advocate examination of any person who has been in contact with a case of tuberculosis. They claim that tuberculosis is very "catching".

My many years' experience in diagnosing all manner of cases, has proved to me that the rich as well as the poor can have tuberculosis; the one from eating denatured and highly stimulating foods; the other from the lack of nourishing foods. As long as the majority of our people live out of tin cans, just so long will cases of tuberculosis increase. Probably the radio is lowering the vitality of our citizens almost as much as the consuming of denatured and foodless "foods". Thousands of persons of limited circumstances will sit up way into the night to listen to all sorts of propaganda and demoralizing stuff that goes over the radio.

Consequently, they become anemic from lack of sleep and abnormal excitement. The better-to-do persons are following the same line, but do have a little more chance for recreation than the very poor.

The plan is to create FEAR of tuberculosis and make everyone think he or she has the disease unless some registered physicians says they "haven't got it yet". Serumization is about the only remedy that is advocated; plus, of course, the stuffing with milk and eggs which has been killing more persons than tuberculosis itself for the past hundred years.

The best prevention of tuberculosis and all other debilitating forms of un-health is lack of fear; a good night's rest; a very little whole, natural, food; the ommission of alcoholic liquors and cigarettes; and correct breathing, fresh air, and sunlight.

Why They Come to California

Dear Friend:

Well the pus-gun men finally drove us out of our home in Texas. Our son has to go to school this fall and if we had stayed in Texas he would have to be vaccinated or his parents be subject to arrest.

So we nailed up our house and set out for California where some freedom is left.

Remove our nut butter ad as we have no lights here as yet and hence are unable to run our mills and equipment.

Shortly we are going to start making some pure fruit products which promise to be even better than the nut butters. I may ask that you place a small ad on it some time later. I will send you a box when we get into production.

You are nailing them to the cross with your hard hitting paper. The truth hurts. You are forcing them out of the dark holes into the light where the cleansing fires can do its work.

Thanking you very kindly and greetings from a fellow Californian.

Fraternally, C. F. WAEGNER,
R 4, Box 104, Watsonville, Calif.

Editor's Note:—All the fight that California has put up against compulsory vaccination and serumizing goes to naught when the A. M. A. gets control of our children, young men and women, in compulsory and industrial training camps where they must submit to the pus-needle. Wake up! write to your congressmen and senators and protest both, the compulsory training and the compulsory vaccination and pus "shots". Do it now!

KEEP US OUT OF WAR !

Members of Congress, keep us out of war!
Why should our young men die on fields afar?
If enemies invade our native land,
Or foes within strike with a traitor's hand—
Then shall we fight and bleed-if need be, die,
But join in Europe's endless warfare—Why?

Within our hearts there is a certain fear
That great disaster may befall us here,
If from our shores we send so far away
Men, ships—equipment that by right should stay.
Of these, our country is in direst need,
Awake, America, Awake! Take heed!

Members of Congress, keep this land of ours
From entanglement with foreign powers.
The voice of Washington sounds in our ears,
A note of warning coming down the years.
Preserve this land for which our heroes bled.
Keep faith with Washington—and with our Dead.

Keep faith with Country—yes, keep faith with God.
This land of ours is Freedom's holy sod.
May Christ the King defend us and save us
From all the isms that would enslave us—
Put far from us the tyrant's bloody rod.
Keep faith with Country—yes, keep faith with God.

WASHINGTON'S FAREWELL ADDRESS

"In contemplating the Causes which may disturb our Union, it accurs as a matter of serious concern, that any ground should have been furnished for characterizing parties by geographical discriminations—Northern and Southern—Atlantic and Western; whence designing men may endeavor to excite a belief that there is a real difference of local interests and views. One of the expedients of Party to acquire influence, within particular districts, is to misrepresent the opinions and aims of other districts.—You cannot shield yourselves too much against the jealousies and heartburnings which spring from these misrepresentations;— They tend to render alien to each other those who ought to be bound together by fraternal affection.—The inhabitants of our Western country have lately had a useful lesson on this.—They have seen, in the negotation by the Executive, and in the unanimous ratification by the Senate, of the Treaty with Spain, and in the universal satisfaction at that event, throughout the United States, a decisive proof how unfounded were the suspicions propagated among them of a policy in the General Government and in the Atlantic states unfriendly to their interests in regard to the MISSISSIPPI.—They have been witnesses to the formation of two Treaties, that with G. Britain, and that with Spain, which secure to them everything they could desire, in respect to our foreign Relations toward confirming their prosperity.—Will it not be their wisdom to rely for the preservation of these advantages on the UNION by which they were procured?—Will they henceforth be deaf to those advisers, if such there are, who would sever them from their Brethren, and connect them with Aliens?—"

DO YOU STAND FOR PEACE ?

You say you stand for Peace when we have Peace?
Not much to say,—
We're all that way.
But when cannons roar and hate is rife,
And men are killing with shell and knife,
THEN do you stand for Peace?

Or do you grab a sword, shout the battle-cry,
Insane with hate,
Never hesitate
To kill women and babies of other lands,
And then stand dripping with bloody hands,—
Is that your stand for Peace?

If you think there's a law that MIGHT makes RIGHT
Go ahead and slay !
Smash the world that way!
Make all wealth destruction's tool;
Go stark mad,—break every rule
Of Christ, the Prince of Peace.

But if there's a law that RIGHT makes MIGHT
Fall to your knees
And be forgiven;
Then get on your feet and stand for the Right,
Melt your swords into plowshares, refuse to fight,—
Then you will stand for Peace.

My Task

To keep aloft the flaming torch, though tired grow the hand;
Though soul grow faint and music of the voice is stilled;
Until a hand of newer mold can grasp that torch again
And light the unknown path to guide the wandering steps of men.

—Mae Mead Plagmann, Atascadero, California.

TO A FRIEND

You are protecting,
Silent and kind - detecting
My virtues and fallacies—
Filling me with memories
Of deep and profound solitude,
Inspiring growing wood,
The vastness of the sea! —
The realm of mystery.

RADIO TALK over KGB (dial 1330)

A FAMILY CONVERSATION

Tonight you are taken into the home of the editor and his family. Sitting in the parlor you find Mrs. Genevieve de Aryan, our older son, David and Fred, freckel face, each with a piece of the evening paper in his hands, reading the latest dispatches and discussing the occurrences of the day with their father and among themselves. It is a scene that is taking place in many American homes tonight and it represents the sound interest which old and young take in the affairs of their country. This exchange of ideas on the questions of the hour brings out facts which all should know. I am quite sure you will gain much valuable information.

DAVID—Last Thursday night you told us in your radio broadcast to read the New York dispatch by Upton Close which appeared in the National Whirligig column of the TRIBUNE-SUN that night. What particular passage did you have in mind, daddy?

DAD—A prominent businessman of Ogden, Utah, was vacationing with his wife in Scotland and by chance they met Winston Churchill on the golf links. During the conversation that ensued Churchill revealed some of the inside story of the last world war. He said that the new Emperor Karl, of Austria, had already agreed upon armistice terms with the president of France, when President Woodrow Wilson went before congress with the request for a declaration of war against Germany. That, of course, gave the war a new impetus and cancelled the proposed armistice. You will find a parallel recently in the report of Ray Tucker who wrote in the National Whirligig column from Washington, which is quoted in full in last week's issue of THE BROOM, to the effect that an "important gentleman with international connections' addressed a luncheon given in honor of Alf Landon. This important gentleman with international connections said at the luncheon that Prime Minister Churchill had delivered a desperate message to American friends close to the White House, asking for a virtual declaration of war by America to prevent the recall of Chamberlain who otherwise would make peace with Hitler. You boys should read what Churchill told that Utah businessman from Ogden in order to realize that we have in this world a bunch of war racketeers, as Senator Worth Clark, from Idaho called them last Saturday in his speech over the air. These war racketeers literarily pull off wars for the profit there is in it for them just as labor racketeers pull off strikes and boycotts for the graft there is in it. Fred, if you will go in my room you will find that clipping on the second shelf. Will you please fetch it.

FRED—Alright, dad, I'll get it.

MOTHER—Did you not publish an interview Winston Churchill gave to some New York editor last year where he said that Europe would have been much better off had America not meddled in its affairs?

DAVID—I remember it, too. I know where to find it. Shall I get it?

DAD—You might just as well and then you can compare these two reports and see how they dovetail.

FRED—Here, dad, I found the clipping from the Whirligig.

DAD—Give it to mother. Let her read it to you children. Just read the portions I marked, Veiva.

MOTHER—Churchill then said, in substance: "Now, I'll tell you a story that nobody knows—or at least nobody has told—that will interest you. Once it became evident that America was in, and could provide several million men and would fight until she eventually got them armed, the Germans on their part were willing to concede the war. That was all right with us and the French—if the Germans would pay the costs of rehabilitation. They did not have the money, and they showed us they did not have it, and it became evident that there was only one place where it could come from, and that was the United States. But no one saw just how to get the money out of America by calling off the war. The Americans were mad at the Kaiser and were out to lick him; not to put their cash to buy peace between him and the Allies.

"It was realized that the war would have to be brought home to Americans, that it would have to become THEIR war before peace would appear to be their peace. So the German armies were ordered to fight on, and American soldiers were given more and more of the fight to carry—until Germany collapsed and tens of thousands of American boys had fallen."

DAVID—Daddy, is such a thing possible?

DAD—Not only is it possible, but that is how wars are made, carried on and paid for. Did I not show you when you read the comments of Edwin C. Hill in the San Diego UNION about Mayer Amshel, how be became a world banker, one of those important gentlemen with international connections, after he succeeded to induce the King of England to hire an army of Hessian mercenaries from the Landgrave of Hessen. For this he received two million dollars in gold, while George Washington, then, was forced to fight the Hessians. That is what made the revolutionary war necessary and prolonged it when the English King had no soldiers of his own in the American colonies to fight against General Washington. This fellow Mayer Amshel was made a baron and took on the name of Rothschild. His business expanded. He established branch banks in Paris, London and Naples and made money furnishing Hessian and Swiss mercenaries to the Princes of Europe in their wars with each other. Rothschild's corporation has branched out considerably since. They controlled the whole banking system of Europe and that system has been introduced in the United States so that today when our government borrows money these important gentlemen with international connections are the ones who handle those loans and receive the lion's share of the profits and interest. They own the controlling interest in the metal industry, in the oil fields, the mines and forests as well as in every armament industry in the world. Making war is a business to them. They capitalize that business and as Vice-President Marshall said openly time and again, America entered the world war to save the investments of American bankers with the Allies. Somebody has to pay for it before the world bankers are willing to call off a war.

FRED—Are we going to go to war again, dad?

DAD—If those important gentlemen with international connections have their way about it, we certainly are going to go to war. They have already prepared the way by bringing the British government over to Canada should Hitler invade England and by creating a socalled CARTEL of the American republics to strangle German commerce with South America.

FRED—What is a cartel, dad?

DAD—Its a combination in restraint of trade. The taxpayers of the United States are to finance a special corporation which is to buy up all the export products of the American countries, and then sell them to Europe, Asia and Africa on its own terms. Since the South American countries produce a good deal of wheat, corn and live stock which the UNITED STATES also exports, naturally, Uncle Sam will hold the sack as we did under the New Deal system of paying the farmers for plowing under every third row of cotton and paying them not to plant anything. That will increase our national debt, but the increase of it profits the important gentlemen with international connections because they are the world bankers to whom we must pay interest on the national debt.

MOTHER—And what will the Germans do about it?

DAD—It is the same as with the treaty of Versailles. The Germans were enclosed in a ring of iron by a lot of little buffer states controlled by the important gentlemen with international connections who were underselling Germany just as America is now being urged to join in such a cartel to destroy German trade. To protect its trade Germany had to invade Austria, then Bohemia and Poland. And if the Cartel Idea materializes, Germany will have to invade South America to safeguard its own trade.

DAVID—Then this cartel is bound to bring the war to the American continents?

DAD—Yes, David. That is what the important gentlemen with international connections have planned for Uncle Sam to do. Hand mother the clipping with the interview which Winston Churchill gave over a year ago to William Griffin, editor of the New York Enquirer. Read it out loud, Veiva, so the children will know how America's entry and meddling in Europe's fight brought on Fascism and Communism in Europe. One cannot impose self-government with force of arms. Liberty comes only to people who respect the rights of their neighbors.

MOTHER—Winston Churchill said: "America's entrance into the war was disastrous not only for your country but for the Allies as well, because had you stayed at home and minded your own business we would have made peace with the Central Powers in the spring of 1917, and by so doing would have saved over 1-million British and French lives. We would have made peace with Germany and then there would have been no collapse in Russia followed by Communism; no breakdown in Italy followed by Fascism; and Nazism would not at present be enthroned in Germany."

DAD—I want to explain the term used by Marshall Petain recently when he said that the French pre-war capitalistic system was the basic cause of France's downfall.

FRED—Is Marshall Petain a Communist, dad?

DAD—No, Fred. Petain is a very conservative Frenchman. By French pre-war capitalism he means the Bank of France which was controlled by the House of Rothschild. He means the type of capitalism that invests in international war and creates those wars and refuses to stop them unless they can find some sucker to pay for it, as they induced Uncle Sam to enter the war and pay for it. They never paid us back the war debts and this war is paid for by the gold and silver purchases of our treasury when we pay them more than twice the value of gold and silver which they ship to us.

DAVID—Are you not afraid it will hurt your business to tell these things in public? You are likely to make enemies of those powerful gentlemen with important international connections.

DAD—David, I am more afraid of God if I did not warn the American people and did not quote from sources which are available to every diligent reader of the news in America, but which the average reader does not seem to fully understand otherwise there would be no war hysteria. Good night.

CITY BACKS OUT ON BLACKOUT

Experiment Too Risky, Councilmen Are Told

San Diego will not be blacked out for 10 minutes the night of Aug. 12, the city council decided.

"There is considerable difference between conducting a blackout under conditions brought about by warfare and conducting it for experimental purposes without the request and sanction of the federal government," according to Fred Rhodes, city manager, who reported:

1—That the police and fire departments are opposed to the experiment because "it would be dangerous".

2—That San Diego Consolidated Gas & Electric Co. is opposed because "it would entail dangers to the community which would be very serious".

3—That the legal department is opposed because "the responsibility for accidents and deaths caused would be laid directly upon the city administration".

Rhodes added that the army and navy are not opposing the plan, "but neither are they making a request that it be conducted".

"The blackout was suggested by Harry Foster, chairman of the coming state American Legion convention.

By Charles H. Ingersoll
(Of Dollar Watch Fame)

PHILADELPHIA, (Radio Broadcast),—

The Youth Congress is against arms:- 'Don't want guns—want jobs—say the youths. So they are just now picketing Congressmen—as the Unionists and the Communists do. Their methods and associations may be bad, but they certainly are in order in protesting war, if anyone is. If it were not for youth, war could not start. They are the traditional cannon fodder. Again, with their slogan: 'Jobs vs. Guns', they come close to the central truth of economics. War feeds on unemployment. Jobs are the solution of poverty, which is the feeder of war.

Ingersoll

The most blatant public expression of collect-ivist illiteracy I have heard, was a soap-boxer at 'Bug-house Square', demanding that the Ford plant be 'confiscated and run for the people'. The one business of the world that has set the pace for both low price product and high price labor, which pace has been followed by the whole of industry—not merely automobiles. It is such vicious destructiveness, combined with unreasoning bombast, that looses all the ignorant persecution of 'Reds' and other class-war strife.

The assumption that government, notorious for manhandling everything it touches, could do anything—but sabotage—with an organism such as Ford's, goes another limit; along with that utter incapacity to see the major exploitation of basic monopoly; and thus keeping company in dumbness, with the government officials and labor leaders, who would be given the running of industry by Marxists.

In the search for new viewpoints relating to war that may, by some possibility, contain reassurance that war need not take us back into chaos and another hundred, or thousand, years of darkness, we might observe that during our most progressive modern period—say the last hundred years—we have, until this decade or generation, nursed the hope and expectation that serious wars were a thing of the past.

And so it may be said that during this period, while every form of industrial, commercial and cultural progress was most rapid, we have not had the spur of war and its horrors to frighten us into activity against war. This may be a partial excuse for our not even discovering the cause; or, worse, our not making any use of such discovery in moving it out of our path. How about projecting this thought into an examination of economists' claims that— (1) war comes from poverty— (2) from monopoly of natural resources— (3) from tariff walls. Currently, leading peace societies, statesmen, notably Sir Samuel Hoare, Secretary Hull, Lloyd George, and McGraw-Hills 'Business Week', fully uphold the logical claim here set up.

A WELL-WISHER

I wish I were a sparrow
With entrails like a goose
So I could fly A way up high
With bowels good and loose.

I'd circle over Washington
And none would ever know;
But when I heard these words
"MY FRIENDS"
I'd chirp and let her go.

—Bob C.

THE KELLOGG PEACE PACT

Of the nine nations that ten years ago renounced war for ever, five are now at war: Germany, France, England, Japan and Belgium. Two have been wiped out: Poland and Czechoslovakia. Italy has had two wars since that time, and the United States is expecting at any time to be dragged into the new world war. That's all.—Consolation.
